Step 3: Use the catalog to find the book you want to write a review over.

The screenshot displays a library catalog search page. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'Catalog', 'Circulation', and 'My Info'. Below these is a green header with 'Library Search'. On the left, a sidebar contains 'Library Search', 'Destiny Quest', and 'Resource Lists'. The main search area features a search bar with 'Hunger Games' entered and a 'Reset All' button. Below the search bar are five search method icons: Keyword, Title, Author, Subject, and Series. A 'Narrow your search to:' section contains four filter dropdowns: 'Location' (Chapman High School), 'Material Type' (Any Type), 'Award Winner' (Unlimited), and 'Reading Programs' (Unlimited). A 'Show Less' link is visible in the top right of the filter section.

Step 4: Once you found the book, click on the title to bring up the record.

The screenshot shows a library catalog interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'Catalog', 'Circulation', and 'My Info'. Below these is a breadcrumb trail: 'Library Search > Search Results > "The Hunger Games"'. On the left side, there is a sidebar with 'Library Search' and 'Resource Lists'. The main content area features a book cover for 'The Hunger Games' by Suzanne Collins. To the right of the cover, the title 'The Hunger Games' is displayed in large blue text, followed by the author 'Suzanne Collins.' and the series information '(Series: Hunger Games 1)'. Below this, there is a status update: '0 of 3 copies are available locally. Estimated wait unknown (3 hold requests in queue). 1 of 2 copies are available off-site.' and a 'See all...' link. A synopsis follows: 'Sixteen-year-old Katniss Everdeen accidentally becomes a contender in the annual Hunger Games, a grave competition hosted by the Capitol where young boys and girls are pitted against one another in a televised fight to the death.' Below the synopsis is a star rating of four stars and a link to '(4 reviews)'. On the right side of the book record, there are three buttons: 'Wish List' (with a star icon), 'Recommend' (with a speech bubble icon), and 'Hold It!' (with a book icon). At the bottom of the record, there is a 'Selected List: My Personal List' and an 'Add to this List' button. A 'Show Less' link is visible on the left, and a row of links including 'Explore!', 'Quiz Info', 'Publication Info', 'Additional Info', and 'Awards' is at the bottom.

This book was a pretty good book. It has suspense, romance, and action. Which are great combinations. So i recommend taking a look :)

★★★★☆ October 14, 2009
I can't say that I absolutely loved Hunger Games, but I really did enjoy it. It felt like a PG-13 rated version of something Stephen King might write. The story gets off to a slow start, with the exposition and all, but once the Hunger Games actually get started, the pace is quick and the story disturbing, yet compelling. The biggest problem I had with Hunger Games was that it was written in first person, which killed a lot of the suspense for Step 7: Fill in the spaces with the information you want and hit SAVE.

The screenshot shows a library catalog interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'Catalog', 'Circulation', and 'My Info'. Below these is a breadcrumb trail: 'Library Search > Search Results > "Gone" > Add Review'. On the left side, there is a vertical menu with options like 'Library Search', 'My Quest', and 'Source Lists'. The main content area is titled 'Reviewing...' and features a book icon next to the title 'Gone' by 'Grant, Michael, 1954-'. Below the title, there is a rating section with five stars and the text 'How do you rate this title?' followed by 'Rate this title'. A large text box is provided for 'Enter your comments below...'. In the top right corner of the review form, there are two buttons: 'Save' (with a floppy disk icon) and 'Cancel' (with a red 'X' icon). These two buttons are circled in red.
